

BehaviourModel::Activity1::ActivityDiagram1

Actions:

Start: start of the signing up process

Input personal details: User gives username, email, password, confirm password, first name and last name

Check correct details: system checks if all details are given and email and username must be unique

Save user information: if details are correct, details will be saved to database. If not then system asks to input personal details again

Signup done: user has registered and he/she has account